

See Red?

It's against the law to sell tobacco products to anyone under the age of 18.

Ask for ID. If you see red, carefully check the date of birth.

Both the Driver's License and State ID for minors have a RED background.

Always check the 18th birthdate in the upper right-hand corner—if it's before the birthdate listed on the license, the customer isn't old enough to buy tobacco products.

*The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) REQUIRES that retailers verify the age of purchasers of cigarettes or smokeless tobacco who are under the age of 27 by means of photographic identification that contains the bearer's date of birth.
